

Is this Private? (from lesson 5 - Right to Privacy)

Is This Private?

- We're going to show you pictures of different places, body parts, behaviors, and conversations.
- Tell us if they are private or not.

Activity: Participants will look at pictures of different places, body parts, behaviors and conversations and discuss which pictures represent something "public" (happens or exists in open view, where other people can see or hear) and which pictures represent something "private."
